

EVEN SWINDON PRIMARY SCHOOL GOVERNORS 2017-18

David Corlett

David is a Senior Manager for Wincanton Logistics on the B&Q contract in Swindon. He was interested in becoming a school governor as he felt that he wanted to know more surrounding the decisions which take place regarding his sons academic future, both from the Governments directives and school driven decisions. He currently sits on the finance and premises committee and is the link governor for early years.

Jim Robbins

Jim is one of the local Councillors for the Mannington & Western ward and is keen to support his local school. He has worked in a number of education roles in schools and universities in his career, and is also a foster carer.

Keri Mathias

I am a Specialist Advisor at Nationwide. I have been a parent governor for 4 years and originally applied to make a contribution to my local community. I have previously sat on the Premises Committee but am now the Chair of the Staffing Committee and sit on the Pay Panel Committee. I have 2 children at Even Swindon.

Rev Harvey Gibbons

My name is Harvey Gibbons and I have lived in Swindon for the last four years. I am vicar of three churches, St Augustine in Even Swindon, All Saints in Ferndale and St Barnabas in Gorse Hill, which is where I live. I have been a vicar for nearly twenty years and have run numerous parishes in south Wiltshire. I am married to Liz and we have two grown up children Toby and Hester. I am committed to life long learning and enabling people of all ages to achieve what they aspire to. I have served on numerous school governing bodies and really enjoyed getting involved in the life of the school.

Sue Barnes

I am a former Maths teacher who lives in Rodbourne and I have been a school governor in Swindon for over 15 years. I currently have 2 grandchildren in Even Swindon primary School and I am the vice chair of the Staffing Committee.

Kayleigh James

Kayleigh has been a teacher at Even Swindon since 2011. She has taught in years 2 and 3 and is Science subject leader within the school. She was interested in becoming a governor to learn more about the leadership and management of the school and to help shape any new initiatives and changes within the school. She currently sits on the curriculum committee.

Lisa Carswell

Lisa is a mum of four boys, three of which currently attend Even Swindon Primary School, one has moved up to Secondary. Lisa works as a Website Administrator for The White Horse Federation (a multi academy trust) in Swindon. She wanted to become a governor to make a contribution to her children's school. Lisa currently serves on the Curriculum and Achievements committee.

Ann- Marie Scott

Ann-Marie is a mum of two girls both students at Even Swindon School. She became a governor as she wanted to be involved and make a contribution to her children's school. Ann-Marie currently sits on the Finance and Premises Committee.

David Easter

David has been a Governor at Even Swindon for over 15 years, serving on all the committees over that time. He also serves as a Governor for Brimble Hill School. He is a retired Swindon Headteacher. His term of office ends in March 2018, at which point he will be retiring as a School Governor. David currently sits on the Finance and Premises Committee.

Neil Sim